In consequence of this he was sent by the government to Africa, where he greatly distinguished himself. After the capture of Tlemeen, in 1836, he was left in command of the citadel of that place, in which perilous situation he displayed great bravery, repeatedly repelling the attacks of the Arabs. From that time he was actively engaged in the Algerine war, and rose rapidly in the service.

When the republic was inaugurated in the spring of '48, Lamartine, who was placed at the head of the provisional government, raised him to the rank of commandant of the military province of Algeria. This tribute was paid to him by the poet-statesmen, not only because he knew his eminent fitness as a soldier for the post, but because of his well-know attachment to constitutional republican government. In this position he remained until he was elected by a most appreciative constituency to the Legislative Assembly. He continued in that body until the Lamartine Provisional Government failed, when he became President. In the Assembly, his consistent affection for conservative republicanism was most thoroughly tried. He opposed with equal firmness the restoration of legitimacy as represented in the person of Henry, Prince of Chambord, the return of the Orleanists to power, in the person of the Count of Paris, and the spread of red republicanism and anarchy, as personified by Ledru Rollin,

Louis Blanc and Raspail. It was mainly owing to his unshaken and iron firmness that the revolution was put down in June, 1848 .--It was true he received powerful aid from Lamoriciere, and other gallant spirits who loved liberty regulated and controlled by law. But he never hesitated or faltered, and where none but Bonaparte had ever succeeded, he too was successful -we mean in the quelling of a Parisian mob, when it had been thoroughly organized and payment of a note, which, if he did not meet, would rehad raised barricades. It was a high tribute to his saysqualities as a man, and an expression of popular confidence in him, which was peculiarly gratifying to him. Had he been permitted by Providence to enter upon this new career, he would, we believe, have roused into life the latent republicanism of France. REVIEW OF THE WILMINGTON MARKET,

FOR THE WEEK ENDING NOV. 19TH, 1857.

the leading articles remain without material change. Below

we give a review of the week's transactions, which will be 400 " 30 inch Shirtings, TURPENTINE-No change of consequence has taken place in this article, with the exception of virgin, which now goes at the same price of yellow dip. The receipts continue their goods at present low figures .- Observer. meagre in consequence of the low stage of the river, and we note a fair demand existing. The sales for the week com- scrape, 35 to 40 cts. per 100 los; 1ar, $1 to 15 $1 10; Collin, note a fair demand existing. The sales for the week comprise only 2,372 bbls., as follows:

Tuesday 334 2 50 2 50 1 50 at from 12 a 124 cents 2 lb.

SPIRITS TURPENTINE-There has been but little done in this article since our last review, and the market closes in day reached upwards of 900 bales, a portion of which was string pieces, of the same dimensions as for Brown Marsh. The whole to be of good sound heart pine timber, free from rather an unsettled state. We learn that a small lot changed ted as follows, viz: 6 hales at 124; 176 at 124; 461 at 124. hands this morning at 374 cents per gallon, but sellers gener- and 233 bales at 13 cents. ally are hold at a higher figure. The following comprises the week's transactions:

Sales for the week of only about 500 bbls. No. 1 at prices ranging from $1 50, to $2 50 as in quality; and 1,500 do. No. 2 at $1 15 @ bbl. Sales in Common as follows: Friday, 350 bbls. at $1 for large | market closed with holders demanding an advance. Manbbls.: Saturday, 200 do. at $1 for medium; Monday, 1,400 do, at $1 for medium, $1 05 for large bbls., and $1 10 $ 310 and the market has ruled exceedingly dull. We note only one small lot (40 bbls.) received for the week, and sold at | dull at 4s 4d. a 4s. 6d. $1 05 @ bbl.: demand light.

BEEF CATTLE .- The market continues to be poorly supquite small. Only a few small droves have been brought to dency. Consols 894 for money. market within two or three weeks past. We quote at 51 to 61 cents & lb., as in quality; a prime article would sell readily at a higher price.

BARBELS .- In Spirits Turpentine barrels nothing of consequence has been done during the past week, as the sales enquiry, and a good stock in first hands. Second hand ones at are selling at from $1 75 to $1 90 each, according to quality,

COFFEE .- Fair stock of nearly all descriptions on market, and nothing done except in the retail way. We refer to our table for rates from store, as in quantity and quality ruled quite firm since our last review, but owing to the small receipts the transactions have been light. 'Ve quote sales

th. for middling to good middling. We refer to our table for classified rates, at which there are buyers. or classified rates, at which there are buyers.

Corn Meal-Continues in moderate supply, with merely a business, but solely for the purpose of raising MONEY.

The above sale will be continued from day to day for retail enquiry. We quote from the granaries at $1 @ bushel, FORTY DAYS.

FISH.—The market is at present very poorly supplied, and prices rule high. Two small lots of Mullets received, and one parcel sold from wharf at $7 50 % bbl.; selling from store at $8 50.

FLOUR .- There has been rather more enquiry for this article since our last review, and in consequence of the meagre receipts the market has ruled exceedingly firm. The arrivals both per river and railroad have been confined to small parcels for two or three weeks past, and the supply in first hands has become nearly or quite all worked off. The advices from other places prove rather unfavorable, but owing to above facts, rates here remain unchanged, and have an upward tendency. We quote only small transactions in State brands during the week at $6 50 for superfine, and $7 00 W bbl. for family :- we learn of one small sale at $6 624 for superfine, but above rates may be considered as the market. For Northern there is no enquiry, and market

GRAIN-For Conx the market has ruled quiet during the week :-- the stock in store is light, but dealers show very little disposition to operate. Received from Hyde county on Monday about 2,350 bushels, 450 of which sold on private terms, and 1,900 at 70 cents per bushel. OATS-Nothing new to notice in this article. No late receipts, and the stock on market has become very much reduced. In the absence of sales we are unable to give a correct figure, and therefore omit quotations .---- PEAS-None of the new crop yet received, and market bare: in demand, and would stock, and demand unusually light; sales from store in the small way at 5 cents per lb .- WHEAT-Nothing done sine our last, and in the absence of sales our quotations must be locked upon as merely nominal. One lot of 900 bushels inferior red, received from Hyde county, sold at 80 cents per bushel.

HAY-In this article we have nothing of consequence to report. One lot of 250 bales Eastern was received a few days since and changed hands on terms not made public .-No arrivals of Northern, and good stock on market. Our quotations in table are for last sales.

LIME -Dealers have a heavy stock on hand, and we note a limited demand existing. Selling from store in the small way at $1 a $1 25 @ cask, as in quality. MOLASSES-The market is very well supplied with most descriptions, and nothing doing except in the small way .-

Our quotations in table represent store rates, according to quantity and quality. PEA NUTS-The new crop has begun to make its appearance, and as there are few or no orders here the market has opened at a very low figure. We quote sales from carts during the week at 60 a 65 cents & bushel.

POTATOES-Very few Irish on market, and in fair demand. We advance rates a shade, and quote at $3 50 a $4 % bbl., as in quantity. Sweet remain without change; sell from carts at 50 a 60 cents & bushel.

PROVISIONS .- For N. C. cured Bacon the market remains the same as reported for some time past. We notice a brisk demand, and none on market. Two small lots were received in the early part of the week, and sold at 20 a 21 cents 2 h. for hams, as in quality. Quotations in table are merely nominal. We notice the arrival since our last of several parcels Western, and there is now a good supply on market. We reduce rates a shade, and quote sales from store at 134 a 14 cents for shoulders, and 15 a 15% cents # 1b. for sides, according to quantity and quality .- LARD .- There is a moderate stock of Western on market, and we notice a limited enquiry. We quote small sales from store at 15 a 15 cents ? Th. in kegs and bbls. Market bare of N. C. make .--- PORK. -The arrivals of Northern have been quite heavy since our last review, and there is now a good supply in first hands .-The demand appears to have been somewhat checked, and in consequence prices have gone down a shade. We refer to our table for store rates of different qualities, in quantities to suit. The arrivals of fresh from the country have been rather better, and it has ruled quite dull. We quote from carts at 11 a 111 cents 2 fb. SALT-The market is very well stocked with all descriptions, and rules decidedly dull. No arrivals of Alum; former receipts are selling from store at quotations, as in quantity. See table. We note the receipts from Liverpool of a cargo Note.-River Lumber, Tar, and Turpentine, sold in the of 3,600 sacks, which changed hands on private terms; selling from wharf, in lots, at 85 a 90 cents W sack. SHINGLES-Are dull of sale; none received, however, ex-when brought & Railroad, about the same expenses are iu- cept a few small boat loads of Common, which have sold at $2 a $2 50 $2 M., as in quality. Contract are nominal at $4 TIMBER-We have no material alteration to report in this article. The quantity brought in for several weeks past has been small, and the demand from millers is limited. We quote sales of only a few rafts at prices ranging from $5 to $8 50 PM., as in quality. See table.

FREIGHTS-Produce continues to arrive sparingly, and the quantity offering is not near sufficient for the large number of vessels in port. To New York and Philadelphia rates remain unchanged, but to Boston have declined a shade; market dull. See table.

WASHINGTON. Nov. 10 .- Naval Stores -- The meagre receipts render our quotations entirely nominal. Should any quantity arrive prices would vary. We give quotations of last sales:—Dip Turpentine $2 25. Tar $1 a 1 10. Rosin would bring 85 a 90 cts. $2 bbl. No sales of Spirits Turpentine. Wheat-Corn and Cotton-No change.
